

MONDAY MORNING Mastery

Simplify Your Life and Career with the SYSTEMS THINKING APPROACH®

Individual Strategic and Systems Thinking Workshops—and a Series too!

- ✓ Half-day Individual Workshops, Once a Month
- ✓ Receive two CEU Credits from the University of San Diego for the Series
- ✓ Leads to a Gold Mastery Certification in Strategic and Systems Thinking

Strategic Thinking and Systems Thinking are integral components to business success. By grasping the fundamentals of how an organization works, as a system, it is possible to work through its complexity and arrive at real, effective solutions to difficult individual, team, and organizational problems.

We'll train you and your staff to think, plan, and act strategically on a daily basis and get you ready to kick-start your organization into high gear when the economic turn-around occurs.

Each month is an individual learning event to think more strategically on a daily basis. By completing the Monday Morning Mastery Series, you have finished Step 1 of a simple 3-Step Process to achieving a Gold Mastery Certification in Strategic and Systems Thinking.
